

Satyam, Sivam, Sundaram conveys the essential and fundamental nature of our life. Satyam means the Eternal Truth, Sivam symbolises the Bright and good aspects of the Universe and Sundaram stands for the everlasting beauty that underlies cosmic life. To sum up, it is that which is ever true, brilliant or auspicious and beauty par excellence which nothing can be said worth its existence or life. The circle that surrounds the angles within portrays the eternal nature of the Universe. The tree is the tree of knowledge of life and the three angles represent the Trinity, the Lords of Creation, Sustenance and Dissolution.
